

Sermon Discussion Questions
Messiah; Our Comforting Hope
Isaiah 40:1-11
12/5/10
Rev. Pat McElroy

1. There is a great deal of despair in our world. How does this passage encourage you to hope in the promises of God?
2. What does this passage remind us about who God is? What qualities of His are highlighted here?
3. What is it about that God's strength that brings comfort? Peace? Hope?
4. How has God brought hope to you? Where is your trust?
5. Ask this one to yourself: are you still harboring the idea that your sin is unforgivable? Have you considered that you might be saying that God is not able to redeem it? You might be saying more about God than what you believe about your own sin.
6. Where is your hope today? Be honest!
7. How has your hope grown in Jesus Christ? What has encouraged it to grown?

Related passages: Luke 1:5-17, 57-80

Sermon Discussion Questions
Messiah; Our Comforting Hope
Isaiah 40:1-11
12/5/10
Rev. Pat McElroy

1. There is a great deal of despair in our world. How does this passage encourage you to hope in the promises of God?
2. What does this passage remind us about who God is? What qualities of His are highlighted here?
3. What is it about that God's strength that brings comfort? Peace? Hope?
4. How has God brought hope to you? Where is your trust?
5. Ask this one to yourself: are you still harboring the idea that your sin is unforgivable? Have you considered that you might be saying that God is not able to redeem it? You might be saying more about God than what you believe about your own sin.
6. Where is your hope today? Be honest!
7. How has your hope grown in Jesus Christ? What has encouraged it to grown?

Related passages: Luke 1:5-17, 57-80