

Sermon Discussion Questions

Here I come, ready or not!

Matthew 25:1-13

1/2/11

1. This passage and the previous one, Mt 24:36-51, emphasize a very important piece of information regarding Jesus. What is that?
2. How does this story fit with question number 1?
3. How is the story of this passage more understandable than some of the other parables of Jesus?
4. The story concerns the wise and the not so wise. Do you know of any similar incidents in today's world?
5. Can you think of any incidents in your own life concerning wise or not so wise decisions?
6. Was it fair for the bridegroom to lock the door to the banquet and not admit late comers? Why?
7. This parable has a meaning for our eternal life. What needs to be done according to this story?

Related passages: Mt 7:23, 13:35, 24:42, 44; Lk 12:40; Rev 19:9.

Sermon Discussion Questions

Here I come, ready or not!

Matthew 25:1-13

1/2/11

1. This passage and the previous one, Mt 24:36-51, emphasize a very important piece of information regarding Jesus. What is that?
2. How does this story fit with question number 1?
3. How is the story of this passage more understandable than some of the other parables of Jesus?
4. The story concerns the wise and the not so wise. Do you know of any similar incidents in today's world?
5. Can you think of any incidents in your own life concerning wise or not so wise decisions?
6. Was it fair for the bridegroom to lock the door to the banquet and not admit late comers? Why?
7. This parable has a meaning for our eternal life. What needs to be done according to this story?

Related passages: Mt 7:23, 13:35, 24:42, 44; Lk 12:40; Rev 19:9.