Everlasting Father

Matthew 1:1-17

11/27/11

Rev. Pat McElroy

1. What is so significant about starting this genealogy with Abraham?
2. Why is David so significant to this genealogy?
3. With Whom does the genealogy end?
4. Why are these specific women included?
5. Why are the evil kings included?
6. Why are Asaph and Amos there?
7. How many generations are in each section? Why is that important?
8. What is the author trying to say? Why is it important to establish Jesus as the Son of David?
9. If Jesus came for these, He can save anyone. How has He saved you? How should that have an effect on our approach to ministering to others?
10. How does the faithfulness of God inspire faithfulness in your walk with Him?
11. Hope does not disappoint the believer in Christ. To what can you cling when all appears hopeless?
